

Join Us In Montreal

A Letter from Bailli Régional Michel Busch

Dear confrères,

I am pleased to invite you to experience the vibrant combination of European charm and North American energy that is Montréal. Each year, our beautiful city attracts thousands of visitors who come to enjoy its warm welcome and dazzling line-up of events and festivities.

Montréal is also known as a study in the art of eating, and while French fare is ubiquitous on our dining scene, food-lovers can also choose from menus inspired by an array of global influences. From chic restaurants and upscale bistros to trendy cafés and casual eateries, Montréal promises a memorable gourmet feast.

If you enjoy shopping, fall in Montréal will fit you like a glove. And the crisp autumn air is perfect for wrapping yourself in the latest creations by Montréal's talented designers.

Discover the beautiful colours in Montréal with a walk to the top of beautiful Mount Royal in the city centre, which breaks out in a beautiful mosaic of bright reds and oranges. Fall under the spell of the Magic of Lanterns at the Botanical Garden, where the colourful glow of hundreds of silk lanterns brightens up fall evenings. Or explore Old Montréal and stroll the cobblestone streets steeped in history and architecture.

And do not forget that we have many delectable surprises in store for you during the Grand Châpitre that will nourish you with one-of-a-kind enjoyable moments.

The Bailliage of Montreal is looking forward to the pleasure of welcoming you in its distinctive city for unique "AMITIÉ & JOIE DE VIVRE" experiences.

Sincerely,

Michel Busch
Bailli Régional de Montréal
