

Note from the Bailli Délégué

David R. Tétrault
Bailli Délégué du Canada
Membre des Conseils d'Administration
et Magistral (Paris)
President du Concours International des
Jeunes Commis Rôtisseurs

Our national meeting will be held in Vancouver this year, and I hope you are making plans to attend. We are pleased that our Bailli Régional, Dr. Jane Ruddick, and her team will be hosting us October 21 – 23, 2010 for three days of great events. Our host hotel The Fairmont Hotel Vancouver is beginning to plan for this marvellous Grand Chapître. Director of Operations Mr. Rick Corcoran, Maître Hotelier, and his team already have the wheels in motion.

The International Jeunes Commis Competition is being held this year in Helsinki, Finland, in September, and we are pleased that Ms. Stephanie Schnepf will be representing Canada. She is currently a member of the Bailliage du Val d'Okanagan, and is being mentored by our confrère Chef Matthew Batey, Vice-Conseiller Culinaire. Some of you may remember that Chef Batey represented Canada in the competition in Bermuda in 2004, so he is well versed in the requirements of this challenging competition. We hope many of our Canadian members will visit Helsinki during the competition and their Grand Chapître. For more information on the event, visit the international website for la Chaîne des Rôtisseurs.

We are regularly sending out emails to our Canadian members, but we are finding that many of them are bouncing back to us as undeliverable. If you are not receiving regular emails (at least two since the beginning of 2010), please email our Chargé de Missions, Dr. Jack Littlepage, and advise him of your email address. This is a valuable and easy way to stay “in the loop” on Chaîne events across the country.

I look forward to seeing many of you at functions over the course of the year, and I look forward to meeting our many new members in my travels.

Vive la Chaîne!
